Important Fare News from Metro

While Metro relaxed the rules requiring riders to pay fares on buses in March 2020 at the outset of the COVID-19 pandemic, fare collection will resume on the Metro bus system on Jan. 10.

As of that date, there will be two ways to save on fares:

- Metro will be cutting the price of regular passes in half for the first six months, including the Day Pass, Weekly Pass and 30-Day Pass.
- Low-income individuals may qualify for deeper discounts with Metro's Low-Income Fare Is Easy (LIFE) program. For the first six months, new LIFE riders will get 90 days of free rides when fare collections restarts.

Veterans should show their valid veteran's identification to the bus driver upon boarding any participating fixed-route bus service.
